

LTCAS Annual Conference and AGM 23 February 2010, Perth Concert Hall

How can we achieve person-centredness for people with long term conditions?

The concept of person-centred policy and practice has been gathering pace within health, disability and social care agendas. Join LTCAS to explore how we can make person-centredness a reality for people living with Long Term Conditions.

This one day conference will explore:

- The reality of person centredness
- How we can turn policy into practice?
- Developing good practice, including showcasing projects funded through the Self Management Fund

There will be a range of workshops taking place on the day designed to share information, highlight good practice and to encourage people from different sectors to engage in conversations.

Confirmed speakers for the event are:

- Nicola Sturgeon MSP, Deputy First Minister and Cabinet Secretary for Health and Wellbeing
- Jill Vickerman, Deputy Director, Healthcare Planning Scottish Government
- Dr. David Reilly, Clinical Lead, Integrative Care, Scottish Government

This conference is designed to be of interest to a wide range of people working within the voluntary sector, health, social care and government.

The LTCAS AGM will take place during part of the lunchtime period and is open to LTCAS members only.

To book your place at the conference and/or the AGM, please complete and return the attached booking form to event@lucas.org.uk. This form is available to download from www.lucas.org.uk, or phone us on 0141 404 0231 to request a form by post.
